Private Book Collectors.

Where known, the special interests of each collector is given. This listing has been compiled during the past few months from various records, and from the written requests of a large number of collectors. It is completely new, and not a repetition in any part of any former listing of book-buyers that has been included in previous volumes, or elsewhere. Further names and addresses of collectors, as ascertained, will be published in The Bookdealers' Weekly, in which paper also in the near future will be published a compilation of all these collectors classified under their special interests. The work of compiling this Interests Index has already commenced, but publication of this edition of Clegg's cannot be delayed to await its completion; when ready, therefore, the Interests Index to this section of Clegg's will be printed in an issue or issues of The Bookdealers' Weekly.

THE LIBRARIES', MUSEUMS' AND ART GALLERIES' YEAR BOOK

the Bookman's Friend

It is the most important of the reference books for the Book Trade—booksellers new, antiquarian, second-hand and remainder—publishers, popular and scientific, and technical. The graded addressing lists are the key to the biggest market in the whole trade.

Some of the contents of the four hundred pages :

Directory of Suppliers: Glossary: Associations—aims and addresses: Libraries, Museums and Art Galleries in the British Isles, the Colonies and Dominions, the United States of America, Europe and the world in general: statistics, biographies, special collections by subject; and

These prices in all cases include the envelopes, wrappers, etc., the addressing and carriages or postage to the customer. Orders for less than 10/- must be accompanied by remittance. Envelopes can be supplied with various devices for fastening to keep them within postal regulations. The above prices are for gummed envelopes. Labels are not supplied as they make the postal packet look like a circular and defeat our customer's aims. Other sizes and shapes can be supplied at proportionate rates. These prices are subject to market fluctuations of paper and envelopes.

CUSTOMERS' OWN ENVELOPES FOR SECTIONS FROM JA. TO JG. CAN BE ADDRESSED AT THE RATE OF 5/6 PER THOUSAND. (POSTAGE ON THESE IS EXTRA.)
